Lovely & romantic Hotel, it was my first time to Prague and was a good selection. Close to everything site views & resturants. The room is too romantic & everything is under your hand by clcik on the remote control. I love it & my wife too.

what a hotel, i dont htink this property needs any review, any rating, no talks. one should just go and wrap your self in the most stunning rooms this hotel has to offer. thankfully we were there only for a night else we would have not done any sight seeing as we would not feel like getting out of our room. it has everything you need to make a perfect romatic getaway. I would not like to describe further and kill the experience. Be there to feel it!!!

Visited to celebrate our 30th wedding anniversary. From the moment the hotel's car met us at the airport we were looked after beautifully by the hotel's staff. The incense smell as soon as you enter the building and the discreet lighting and beautiful furnishings complement the theme perfectly. Our room was wonderful and breakfast very good; the bar very intimate and romantic. We were given delicious chocolates on our anniversary and the roses I'd ordered were in a vase in the room on arrival. The small gym was ideal for my requirements. Staff were at all times very friendly, helpful and professional; nothing was too much trouble. Only small quibbles were the heat in the room which the aircon did not seem to diminish, and we both managed to stub our toes on the bed base, which was very dark in a fairly dark room; maybe our eyesight is not what it was!
